

What is this Good News?

1. God makes no distinction among people
 - a. All are under sin
 - b. There are none who are righteous
 - c. All fall short of His standard
2. Good works will not rescue anyone
3. Righteousness comes through faith alone

Questions for thought or discussion from today's message:

- The Bible says, "there are none righteous." What does this mean?
- What is God's standard for approving us?
- What do you think will make you "ok" with God?
- If the end of your life were today, are you sure God will accept you?
