

3. You have crossed over to the King's court

a. You were in the _____

b. You have been given _____

- What would it look like to take ownership of what you deserved?
- Do you believe that you already have eternal life?
- How should this change our attitudes?

The Great Crossover

John 5:24

What is the background of this statement?
John 5:1-18

Jesus' Claims of Equality:

- Equality of _____
- Equality of _____
- Equality of _____
- Equality of _____
- Equality of _____
- Equality of _____

If you are living the gospel, God's justice has been satisfied for you; and you have crossed over from death row into the King's court.

1. Are you living the gospel?

a. Are you hearing Jesus?

b. Are you believing God?

- What does it mean to "hear" Jesus' word?
- Why is this equated with believing God?
- Are you living the gospel? How does this show?

2. God's Justice has been satisfied for you

a. You were a "_____"

b. Your sentence has been _____

- What does true justice demand of you?
- How is justification different from pardon?
- How should this affect the focus of your life?