

Your Walk with God is a Community Project

Follow-up Discussion

- What are some manifestations of self-righteousness?
 - What are some of the tactics we use to deny, diminish, or deflect our responsibility for sinful behaviors?
 - How does self-righteousness show up in relation to others?
(cf. James 1:19-20; 1:26; 4:11, others)
- Discuss the statement: “You’re always living out of your sense of identity.”
 - What are some common identities we might be tempted to embrace?
 - How will living out of these identities affect my relationships?
 - What identity should we embrace?
 - How would this affect our relationships?
- Discuss the statement: “No one is more influential in your life than you.”
 - What is meant by this? Do you believe it?
 - How might you validate this statement with Scripture?
 - How should this affect my own sense of responsibility for the direction of my life? For my attitudes? For my emotions?
 - What hope does this offer for change?
- Discuss the statement: “You have everything you need for life and godliness” (2 Peter 1:3).
 - Do we really believe this? How does our doubt reveal itself?
 - What would change if we embraced this as truly true?
- Discuss Tripp’s phrase “gospelizing yourself.”
 - What did he mean?
 - How would you do this?
- Discuss the following statements:
 - It’s only the needy who will truly get excited about grace.
 - It’s only those who understand the cross will admit need.
- Discuss the idea that the virtues of Christianity are not to be achieved by us but to be lived out by us.
