Matthew 28:5-6a

The angel said to the women,
"Do not be afraid; for I know that you are looking for Jesus who has been crucified. He is not here, for He has risen, just as He said."

Service Order - April 12, 2020

Our order of worship reflects the gospel pattern of hearing and responding: God calls us, revealing Himself to us; we respond in exultation that gives way to confession and contrition. God forgives and assures us; we respond with thanksgiving and professions of faith, with petitions and offerings. God instructs and charges us; we respond by going forth to declare and display His goodness.

It is good and right to prepare ourselves to worship, to quiet our souls and direct our hearts to know that He is God.

When God calls us to see Him as He is, our hearts either move to exultation or melt in apprehension.
By grace we will exult!

God's holiness reveals our fallenness; and, by grace, we agree with His condemnation and confess our sinfulness. Confession and contrition are the roadways to salvation and the responses of those already saved.

God assures us of forgiveness and comforts us by reminding us of Christ and His cross. The redeemed respond by singing their thanksgiving, by professing their faith, and by petitioning
His grace.

By the mercies of God, offer yourselves to Him and worship Him with your life.

Believers go forth and proclaim the excellencies of Christ by declaring His gospel with their mouths and by displaying its truth with their lives.

What If There Were No Resurrection?

1 Corinthians 15:12-19

The historical, bodily resurrection of Jesus Christ is not only central to our faith; it is essential to Christianity.

1. Christian preaching would be empty.
2. Christian faith would be empty.
3. The Apostles themselves would be untrustworthy as false witnesses.
4. There would be no forgiveness of sin.
5. Those who have died in Christ would still be lost.
6. Christianity would be a worthless, hopeless, pitiful religion.

I learned....

A question I have is...

Words I didn't understand...

What is God asking me to do, think, or be...

Pastor Kelly said:

(make a mark for each time you hear the word)

☐ = Christ

☐ = raised

☐ = dead

☐ = sins

HIE IS RISEN
