

No Greater Thing Then, No Better Thing Now

Deuteronomy 4:32-40

The greater things the Lord did for His people then looked forward to the better things He would do for His people now.

1. What were the greater things then?
 - a. The Lord powerfully revealed Himself to His people.
 - b. The Lord powerfully redeemed His people from slavery to a greater nation.
 - c. The Lord powerfully drove out their enemies.
 - d. The Lord prepared for them a dwelling place.

2. What are the better things now?
 - a. The Lord powerfully revealed Himself to His people in Christ.
 - b. The Lord powerfully redeemed His people from slavery to sin and Satan.
 - c. The Lord powerfully drove out the evil forces of darkness.
 - d. The Lord is preparing for His redeemed an eternal dwelling place.

NCC Question 11: What does God require in the sixth, seventh, and eighth commandments?

Sixth, that we do not hurt, or hate, or be hostile to our neighbor, but be patient and peaceful, pursuing even our enemies with love. Seventh, that we abstain from sexual immorality and live purely and faithfully, whether in marriage or in single life, avoiding all impure actions, looks, words, thoughts, or desires, and whatever might lead to them. Eighth, that we do not take without permission that which belongs to someone else, nor withhold any good from someone we might benefit.

Service Order - April 26, 2020

Our order of worship reflects the gospel pattern of hearing and responding: God calls us, revealing Himself to us; we respond in exultation that gives way to confession and contrition. God forgives and assures us; we respond with thanksgiving and professions of faith, with petitions and offerings. God instructs and charges us; we respond by going forth to declare and display His goodness.

It is good and right to prepare ourselves to worship, to quiet our souls and direct our hearts to know that He is God.

When God calls us to see Him as He is, our hearts either move to exultation or melt in apprehension. By grace we will exult!

God's holiness reveals our fallenness; and, by grace, we agree with His condemnation and confess our sinfulness. Confession and contrition are the roadways to salvation and the responses of those already saved.

God assures us of forgiveness and comforts us by reminding us of Christ and His cross. The redeemed respond by singing their thanksgiving, by professing their faith, and by petitioning His grace.

By the mercies of God, offer yourselves to Him and worship Him with your life.

Believers go forth and proclaim the excellencies of Christ by declaring His gospel with their mouths and by displaying its truth with their lives.

I learned....

A question I have is...

Words I didn't understand...

What is God asking me to do, think, or be...

Pastor Kelly said:

(make a mark for each time
you hear the word)

= Lord

= earth

= no other

= heaven

On the back: List out the ABC's and write down a word you hear that starts with each letter in the alphabet.
