NCC Question 9: What does God require in the first, second and third commandments?

Answer: First, that we know and trust God as the only true and living God.
Second, that we avoid all idolatry and do not worship God improperly.
Third, that we treat God's name with fear and reverence, honoring also his Word and works.

Service Order - April 5, 2020

Our order of worship reflects the gospel pattern of hearing and responding: God calls us, revealing Himself to us; we respond in exultation that gives way to confession and contrition. God forgives and assures us; we respond with thanksgiving and professions of faith, with petitions and offerings. God instructs and charges us; we respond by going forth to declare and display His goodness.

It is good and right to prepare ourselves to worship, to quiet our souls and direct our hearts to know that He is God.

When God calls us to see Him as He is, our hearts either move to exultation or melt in apprehension. By grace we will exult!

God's holiness reveals our fallenness; and, by grace, we agree with His condemnation and confess our sinfulness. Confession and contrition are the roadways to salvation and the responses of those already saved.

God assures us of forgiveness and comforts us by reminding us of Christ and His cross. The redeemed respond by singing their thanksgiving, by professing their faith, and by petitioning His grace.

By the mercies of God, offer yourselves to Him and worship Him with your life.

Believers go forth and proclaim the excellencies of Christ by declaring His gospel with their mouths and by displaying its truth with their lives.

Promise, Power, and Purpose

Psalm 138:7-8

God has made a promise to His people and exerts His power toward His people and fulfills all of His purposes for His people.

1. God's promise to you.
 - a. "You will walk through trouble."
 - b. "I will preserve your life."
2. God's power toward you.
 - a. He will overthrow all your enemies.
 - b. He will save you.
3. God's purpose for you.
 - a. You are the work of His hands.
 - b. He will fulfill His purpose for you.
