I learned....

A question I have is...

Words I didn't understand...

What is God asking me to do, think, or be...

Pastor Roger said:

(make a mark for each time
you hear the word)

= desire

= direct

= dwell

= destroy

On the back: List out the ABC's and write down a word you hear that starts with each letter in the alphabet.

The Cure for Covetousness: Cherishing Christ

Colossians 3:1-5

Because covetousness is desiring something so much that we lose our contentment in God, our only hope for curing covetousness and all of its manifestations is to cherish Jesus Christ as far superior and to delight in Him.

- Desire Jesus above all (vs 1)
- Direct your thoughts to a preoccupation with Christ (vs 2)
- Dwell on the reality of your union with Christ (vs 3-4)
- Destroy the temptation to value anything above Jesus (vs 5)

Reflection:

- Do your desires for other things diminish your desire for the Lord? Does a lack of interest in the Lord result in desiring other things more than Him? How can you tell?
- Have you considered that all of your sins ("addictions", "bad habits", "strongholds", etc.) are the result of prizing something more than Jesus? How can understanding this help you turn from sinful habits?
- Do you want to desire Jesus and delight in Him more than anything else?
 - * If you want to but don't know how or feel like you can't, ask for help! We are all there at times and there are many brothers and sisters who can assure you that Jesus is supremely satisfying.
 - * If you don't want to because you desire other things more than Christ, then you may not be a Christian. Delight in Jesus is more fundamental to Christianity than a decision to "accept Christ" or even obedience to His commands.

Order of Worship Service at Cornerstone

August 23rd, 2020

Our order of worship reflects the gospel pattern of hearing and responding: God calls us, revealing Himself to us; we respond in exultation that gives way to confession and contrition. God forgives and assures us; we respond with thanksgiving and professions of faith, with petitions and offerings. God instructs and charges us; we respond by going forth to declare

It is good and right to prepare ourselves to worship, to quiet our souls and direct our hearts to know that He is God.

When God calls us to see Him as He is, our hearts either move to exultation or melt in apprehension.

God's holiness reveals our fallenness; and, by grace, we agree with His condemnation and confess our sinfulness. Confession and contrition are the roadways to salvation and the responses of those already saved.

God assures us of forgiveness and comforts us by reminding us of Christ and His cross. The redeemed respond by singing their thanksgiving, by professing their faith, and by petitioning His grace.

By the mercies of God, offer yourselves to Him and worship Him with your life.

Believers go forth and proclaim the excellencies of Christ by declaring His gospel with their mouths and by displaying its truth with their lives.
