NCC #28:

What happens after death to those not united to Christ by faith?

At the day of judgment they will receive the fearful but just sentence of condemnation pronounced against them. They will be cast out from the favorable presence of God, into hell, to be justly and grievously punished, forever.

John 3:16-18, 36

Love the LORD Alone

Deuteronomy 6:1-25

The great command of all Scripture is to love the LORD alone;
and this will entail listening to Him alone, fearing Him alone,
and teaching His Word alone.

1. Love the Lord alone by listening to Him alone.
 - a. Open your ears wide to hear His voice.

 - b. Close your ears tight to competing voices.

2. Love the Lord alone by fearing Him alone.
 - a. Open your eyes wide to see His holiness.

 - b. Close your eyes tight to competing masters.

3. Love the Lord alone by teaching His Word alone.
 - a. Open your mouth wide to speak His Word.

 - b. Close your mouth tight to competing messages.

Order of Worship Service at Cornerstone

September 13th, 2020

Our order of worship reflects the gospel pattern of hearing and responding: God calls us, revealing Himself to us; we respond in exultation that gives way to confession and contrition. God forgives and assures us; we respond with thanksgiving and professions of faith, with petitions and offerings. God instructs and charges us; we respond by going forth to declare

It is good and right to prepare ourselves to worship, to quiet our souls and direct our hearts to know that He is God.

When God calls us to see Him as He is, our hearts either move to exultation or melt in apprehension.

God's holiness reveals our fallenness; and, by grace, we agree with His condemnation and confess our sinfulness. Confession and contrition are the roadways to salvation and the responses of those already saved.

God assures us of forgiveness and comforts us by reminding us of Christ and His cross. The redeemed respond by singing their thanksgiving, by professing their faith, and by petitioning His grace.

By the mercies of God, offer yourselves to Him and worship Him with your life.

Believers go forth and proclaim the excellencies of Christ by declaring His gospel with their mouths and by displaying its truth with their lives.

(make a mark for each time you hear the word)

= love

= LORD

= God

= alone

On the back: List out the ABC's and write down a word you hear that starts with each letter in the alphabet.
