

Comfort in Affliction

Psalm 119:49-50

The Word of God is the only sufficient source of life-giving hope and comfort in every kind of affliction.

- God's word gives cause for our hope (vs 49)
- God's word gives comfort (vs 50)
- God's word gives life (vs 50)

Reflection:

- When you experience affliction of any kind, where do you turn for comfort? What are you hoping in?
- What does it look like to actively hope (to be presently hoping) in God's word? How is this different from simply knowing what He has promised?
- Can you say with the psalmist that you are the "Lord's servant"? That His word has "made you alive"?
 - If so, that is, if you are united to Christ by faith, then His word gives you cause for hope and life-giving comfort in any affliction.
 - If you do not belong to Him, that is, if you are not trusting in Christ, then you have no claim to the promises He has made in His word, and no reason for hope or comfort in affliction.

Order of Worship Service at Cornerstone

November 1st, 2020

Our order of worship reflects the gospel pattern of hearing and responding: God calls us, revealing Himself to us; we respond in exultation that gives way to confession and contrition. God forgives and assures us; we respond with thanksgiving and professions of faith, with petitions and offerings. God instructs and charges us; we respond by going forth to declare

It is good and right to prepare ourselves to worship, to quiet our souls and direct our hearts to know that He is God.

When God calls us to see Him as He is, our hearts either move to exultation or melt in apprehension.

God's holiness reveals our fallenness; and, by grace, we agree with His condemnation and confess our sinfulness. Confession and contrition are the roadways to salvation and the responses of those already saved.

God assures us of forgiveness and comforts us by reminding us of Christ and His cross. The redeemed respond by singing their thanksgiving, by professing their faith, and by petitioning His grace.

By the mercies of God, offer yourselves to Him and worship Him with your life.

Believers go forth and proclaim the excellencies of Christ by declaring His gospel with their mouths and by displaying its truth with their lives.

Visitors

WELCOME TO CBC!! We are so glad you are here! Please email any questions or prayer requests to office@cornerstoneborean.org .

www.cornerstoneborean.org

In the event that a child needs to leave the sanctuary during the service, the "Cry Room", Room # 122, on the west side of the building will be available, as well as the "Baby Room", Room #104, for nursing mothers on the east side.

Prayer Focus

• Please join with us in praising God for the gift of our excellent Music Ministry at CBC and for all of those who faithfully serve in this area. Please pray that the Lord would continue to encourage and sustain the current team and that their service would be a great joy to them. Please also pray that the Lord would raise up even more gifted vocalists and instrumentalists with a desire to serve in this ministry and support the music team.

• Please pray for persecuted Christians in the country of Cameroon. Cameroon is a very divided country with about half it's population identifying as Christian and the other half as Islamic. Converts can be forced into marriage and often suffer abuse and children of Christian parents are often forced to attend Islamic classes by relatives. Boko Haram violence has increased significantly in the last year.

Apostle's Creed

We believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. The third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy universal church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.
