

God's Wisdom in Trials & Temptations

James 1:5-8

Proven faith that endures will respond to trials and temptations with God-oriented wisdom.

How do we respond to trials and temptations with God-oriented wisdom?

- By recognizing that we lack wisdom in and of ourselves (vs 5)
- By continually seeking wisdom from the Lord and not elsewhere (vs 5)
- By humbly submitting to the Lord and His will (vs 6-8)

Order of Worship Service at Cornerstone

March 7th, 2021

Our order of worship reflects the gospel pattern of hearing and responding:

God calls us, revealing Himself to us; we respond in exultation that gives way to confession and contrition. God forgives and assures us; we respond with thanksgiving and professions of faith, with petitions and offerings. God instructs and charges us; we respond by going forth to declare and display His goodness.

It is good and right to prepare ourselves to worship, to quiet our souls and direct our hearts to know that He is God.

Benediction

When God calls us to see Him as He is, our hearts either move to exultation or melt in apprehension.

God’s holiness reveals our fallenness; and, by grace, we agree with His condemnation and confess our sinfulness. Confession and contrition are the roadways to salvation and the responses of those already saved.

God assures us of forgiveness and comforts us by reminding us of Christ and His cross. The redeemed respond by singing their thanksgiving, by professing their faith, and by petitioning His grace.

By the mercies of God, offer yourselves to Him and worship Him with your life.

Believers go forth and proclaim the excellencies of Christ by declaring His gospel with their mouths and by displaying its truth with their lives.

When God calls us to see Him as He is, our hearts either move to exultation or melt in apprehension. By grace we will exult!

In the event that a child needs to leave the sanctuary during the service, the "Cry Room", Room # 122, on the west side of the building will be available, as well as the "Baby Room", Room #104, for nursing mothers on the east side.

Prayer Focus

- Please join us this week in thanking God for our Hospitality Ministry directed by Don and Peg Johnston, and for all who serve with them in various ways. Please pray that the Lord would continue to provide the Hospitality team with people to serve, that their service would be a joy to them, and that through their loving care, people coming to Cornerstone would continue to experience the warmth and hospitality of Christ.
- Please pray for persecuted Christians in the country of Maldives. Communities in the Maldives are very close-knit and highly populated which means everyone is keeping an eye open for religious changes. Church gatherings are impossible and believers go to great lengths not to be discovered. Due to the tourist industry persecution is hidden but could mean strong opposition, pressure, or even lose of citizenship.

Apostle's Creed

We believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. The third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy universal church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.
