

Holding Marriage in High Honor

Deuteronomy 22:13-30 [Hebrews 13:4]

The one man/one woman covenant of marriage forms the foundation of society and must be tenaciously held in honor against the lusts of the flesh if true community is to be preserved.

1. We must forsake pre-marital promiscuity.

2. We must repudiate extra-marital promiscuity.

3. We must protect the sexually vulnerable.

Order of Worship Service at Cornerstone

April 18th, 2021

Our order of worship reflects the gospel pattern of hearing and responding:

God calls us, revealing Himself to us; we respond in exultation that gives way to confession and contrition. God forgives and assures us; we respond with thanksgiving and professions of faith, with petitions and offerings. God instructs and charges us; we respond by going forth to declare and display His goodness.

It is good and right to prepare ourselves to worship, to quiet our souls and direct our hearts to know that He is God.

When God calls us to see Him as He is, our hearts either move to exultation or melt in apprehension.

God's holiness reveals our fallenness; and, by grace, we agree with His condemnation and confess our sinfulness. Confession and contrition are the roadways to salvation and the responses of those already saved.

God assures us of forgiveness and comforts us by reminding us of Christ and His cross. The redeemed respond by singing their thanksgiving, by professing their faith, and by petitioning His grace.

By the mercies of God, offer yourselves to Him and worship Him with your life.

Believers go forth and proclaim the excellencies of Christ by declaring His gospel with their mouths and by displaying its truth with their lives.
