In the event that a child needs to leave the sanctuary during the service, the "Cry Room", Room # 122, on the west side of the building will be available, as well as the "Baby Room", Room #104, for nursing mothers on the east side.

Prayer Focus

• Cornerstone family, please join with us this week in praying for our membership meeting on 10/24. Please pray for unity as we make important decisions and engage in the business of the church. Please also pray that our time together would be edifying for each other and honoring to Christ.

• Please pray for persecuted Christians in the country of Malaysia. Persecution in Malaysia is non-violent and is instead seen through divorce, family rejection, and even by believers being sent to re-education camps. While it is illegal to share the gospel, the most pressure a Malay believer faces comes from their families and communities. Pray also for the pastors and their families who have disappeared over the last several years.

Order of Worship Service at Cornerstone

October 17th, 2021

Our order of worship reflects the gospel pattern of hearing and responding:

God calls us, revealing Himself to us; we respond in exultation that gives way to confession and contrition. God forgives and assures us; we respond with thanksgiving and professions of faith, with petitions and offerings. God instructs and charges us; we respond by going forth to declare and display His goodness.

It is good and right to prepare ourselves to worship, to quiet our souls and direct our hearts to know that He is God.

When God calls us to see Him as He is, our hearts either move to exultation or melt in apprehension. By grace we will exult!

God’s holiness reveals our fallenness; and, by grace, we agree with His condemnation and confess our sinfulness. Confession and contrition are the roadways to salvation and the responses of those already saved.

God assures us of forgiveness and comforts us by reminding us of Christ and His cross. The redeemed respond by singing their thanksgiving, by professing their faith, and by petitioning His grace.

By the mercies of God, offer yourselves to Him and worship Him with your life.

Believers go forth and proclaim the excellencies of Christ by declaring His gospel with their mouths and by displaying its truth with their lives.
