Order of Worship Service at Cornerstone

December 5th, 2021

Our order of worship reflects the gospel pattern of hearing and responding:

God calls us, revealing Himself to us; we respond in exultation that gives way to confession and contrition. God forgives and assures us; we respond with thanksgiving and professions of faith, with petitions and offerings. God instructs and charges us; we respond by going forth to declare and display His goodness.

It is good and right to prepare ourselves to worship, to quiet our souls and direct our hearts to know that He is God.

When God calls us to see Him as He is, our hearts either move to exultation or melt in apprehension. By grace we will exult!

God’s holiness reveals our fallenness; and, by grace, we agree with His condemnation and confess our sinfulness. Confession and contrition are the roadways to salvation and the responses of those already saved.

God assures us of forgiveness and comforts us by reminding us of Christ and His cross. The redeemed respond by singing their thanksgiving, by professing their faith, and by petitioning His grace.

By the mercies of God, offer yourselves to Him and worship Him with your life.

Believers go forth and proclaim the excellencies of Christ by declaring His gospel with their mouths and by displaying its truth with their lives.

• Cornerstone family, please be in prayer for all the kids participating in the Kids' "The Best Christmas Present Ever" Musical. Praying that preparations would continue to go well and that everyone would be healthy for the program next Sunday.

• Please pray for missionaries Jones and Nicoline who currently live in Louisville, Kentucky, with their five boys: Nethanel, Mishael, Eliezer, Joel, and Lemuel. Jones teaches and writes curriculum for Teaching Truth International (TTI), which is an organization that provides theological training for pastors around the world. Jones and Nicoline have a long-term goal to settle in their home country of Cameroon. Once in Cameroon, Jones will continue working for TTI and plans to be involved in a church-planting effort and the establishment of a church-based seminary in Cameroon's capital city, Yaoundé.
