

Consecrated Tongues

James 3:1-12

By His grace, believers in Christ are granted full forgiveness for all sins and are set apart in order to worship Him with all of our lives, including our speech. If our lives are consecrated to Him, our tongues will be also.

Consecrating our speech to the Lord requires:

1. That we show humility in our speech (vs 1-4)
2. That we're honest about the impact of our words (vs 5-8)
3. That we're honest about the source of our words (vs 9-12)
4. That by His grace, we hear and obey biblical instruction related to our speech

Order of Worship Service at Cornerstone

May 22nd, 2022

Our order of worship reflects the gospel pattern of hearing and responding:

God calls us, revealing Himself to us; we respond in exultation that gives way to confession and contrition. God forgives and assures us; we respond with thanksgiving and professions of faith, with petitions and offerings. God instructs and charges us; we respond by going forth to declare and display His goodness.

It is good and right to prepare ourselves to worship, to quiet our souls and direct our hearts to know that He is God.

When God calls us to see Him as He is, our hearts either move to exultation or melt in apprehension. By grace we will exult!

God’s holiness reveals our fallenness; and, by grace, we agree with His condemnation and confess our sinfulness. Confession and contrition are the roadways to salvation and the responses of those already saved.

God assures us of forgiveness and comforts us by reminding us of Christ and His cross. The redeemed respond by singing their thanksgiving, by professing their faith, and by petitioning His grace.

By the mercies of God, offer yourselves to Him and worship Him with your life.

Believers go forth and proclaim the excellencies of Christ by declaring His gospel with their mouths and by displaying its truth with their lives.
