

What Makes Our Adoption by God as Our Father and Obeying Him So Difficult and What Can be Done about It?

Main Idea: For us to live as our heavenly Father's children, we must engage with Him by maturing in our understanding of this adoption and the authority we are now under.

What Makes Our Adoption by God as Our Father and Obeying Him So Difficult?

1. The Conflict Of Our Fallen Nature and Our New Life In Christ.

a. A Brief Review of Our Fallen Nature

b. A Brief Review of Our New Life In Christ.

2. The Conflict

What Can be Done about It? (This is going to take some reprioritizing!)

Order of Worship Service at Cornerstone

June 23rd, 2024

Our order of worship reflects the gospel pattern of hearing and responding: God calls us, revealing Himself to us; we respond in exultation that gives way to confession and contrition. God forgives and assures us; we respond with thanksgiving and professions of faith, with petitions and offerings. God instructs and charges us; we respond by going forth to declare and display His goodness.

It is good and right to prepare ourselves to worship, to quiet our souls and direct our hearts to know that He is God.

Benediction

When God calls us to see Him as He is, our hearts either move to exultation or melt in apprehension. By grace we will exult!

God's holiness reveals our fallenness; and, by grace, we agree with His condemnation and confess our sinfulness. Confession and contrition are the roadways to salvation and the responses of those already saved.

God assures us of forgiveness and comforts us by reminding us of Christ and His cross. The redeemed respond by singing their thanksgiving, by professing their faith, and by petitioning His grace.

By the mercies of God, offer yourselves to Him and worship Him with your life.

Believers go forth and proclaim the excellencies of Christ by declaring His gospel with their mouths and by displaying its truth with their lives.
