

Civil Injustice and Christ the King

Jeremiah 22:13-19 and 23:5-6

The heart is inclined toward self-indulgence without regard for others, and this is especially true of despotic rulers; but this should shift our hope away from earthly kings to Christ the King.

1. Jeremiah's Complaints.
 - a. Jehoiakim was not building his house in _____.
 - b. Jehoiakim was _____ himself by injustice.
2. Jeremiah's Comparisons.
 - a. Jeremiah compared Jehoiakim to his father _____.
 - b. Jeremiah compared all kings to a promised _____ King.
3. Jeremiah's Conclusions.
 - a. Jehoiakim would be _____ to an ignoble death.
 - b. Judah would be _____ by a righteous King.