

Consolation from a Profound Promise

Jeremiah 31:27-34

Even as the LORD executed His judgments on His rebellious people,
He displayed His mercy by consoling them with a profound promise.

1. What was the background of this promise?
 - a. A fractured family.
 - b. Expulsion and Desolation.
2. What was the thinking and attitude of the people?
 - a. "Our fathers did this to us."
 - b. "The LORD is mistreating us."
3. What was the LORD's response?
 - a. Correction and rebuke.
 - b. Consolation and promise.
