

Under the Sun, All Things Are Wearisome

Ecclesiastes 1:3-11

Considered apart from the LORD, all things are wearisome and frustrating and have no lasting remembrance; but God promises justice and joy to all who fear and love Him.

1. The program of the book.
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____
2. The premise of the poem.
 - a. All things are _____.
 - b. Nothing is _____.
3. The problem in the poem.
 - a. Nothing ever _____.
 - b. No one will _____.
4. The promise of the book.
 - a. God promises _____.
 - b. God promises _____.